EARTHQUAKE ROCKS AREA FROM CANADA TO PHILADELPHIA

Thousands of Scared Householders Awakened by Rattling China, Swaying Floors

OCCURRED AT 2.28 A. M.

Center of the "Quake" Reported In the Connecticut River Valley

By International News Service

A New England earthquake extending as far as Canada in the North and Philadelphia in the south early today shook thousands of frightened householders out of their beds to the accompaniment of swaying floors and rattling chinaware.

The quake occurred at 2.28 this morning, according to officials at the Fordham University seismograph laboratory in New York, and lasted less than half a minute.

Dr. L. Don Leet, in charge of the Harvard University observatory, fixed the time of the quake at 2.25 a. m. on the seismograph there and said it lasted about 30 seconds.

It was centered in the Connecticut River valley and its heaviest effects were felt chiefly in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire.

The only material damage thus far reported were some telephone poles knocked down in the vicinity of Concord, N. H.

Everywhere, throughout the earthquake region, fire and police stations and newspapers and radio stations were deluged by telephone calls from frightened residents.

Among the large cities where the tremors were felt were Montreal, Boston, New Haven, Philadelphia, Camden, N. J., and the Staten Island and Long Island sections of New York City.

It was believed the quake resulted from a subsidence of the earth's crust along the New England coast possibly along a fault under the Connecticut River Valley.

Fordham University officials said the quake was general throughout New England. They described it as a "shallow focus quake" of mild proportions. They said no serious damage would result and that there was no occasion for alarm, that the tremor was a natural occurrence at this time of the year but one that is usually so mild it is not felt.

New England reported the quake was one of the worst in recent years. Most persons there were agreed its effects were general from 2.25 to 2.29 in the morning. Buildings and homes rocked, windows rattled and telephone operators swayed in their chairs.

Doctors were called in several New England communities to quiet hospital patients.

Officials at the seismograph stations of Harvard University at Harvard, Mass., and at West College, Weston, Mass., reported the center of the

MAN OF 72 IS FATALLY HURT; STRUCK BY CAR

Edward Bonner Dies in Nazareth Hospital, Phila., Two Hours After Accident

WOMAN IS UNDER BAIL

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Dec. 20.—The woman driver of a car which fatally injured Edward Bonner, 72, an employee of a tourist camp near City Line on the Lincoln Highway, Bucks County, has been released under $2500 bail on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

The operator of the car was Mrs. Phyllis Crenshaw, Felham Road near Sharpnack street, Mount Airy.

Bonner, who according to police reports was single, resided at Cedar Park avenue, West Oak Lane. He was an employee of a tourist camp on the Bucks County side of City Line.

The aged man was attempting to cross the Lincoln Highway, near here, Wednesday evening, it is reported, when struck by the Crenshaw car. Bonner was taken to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, by Parkland first aid workers of Bucks County Rescue Squad. He died two hours later of a fracture of the skull and fractures of both legs.

Corporal Evans and Private Marks, of Oxford Valley station, Pennsylvania Motor Police, were the investigating officers.

Coats of Paint at School Add To Yule Decorations

Adding to the variety of Christmas decorations at Bath street public school is the new coat of paint given to wood-work in the three downstairs classrooms, by the maintenance engineer, Maurice Roche. Not only has the wood-work been enhanced but in some instances various pieces of furniture.

The paint in Miss Maude Connor's third grade room is green; in Miss Marjorie Spark's first grade room, buff; and in Mrs. Clara Lerman Blitz's room, grade two, oak finish.

In each class room there is a large decorated tree; while the walls and windows too have special trim, much of it made by the pupils under direction of the instructresses.

On the faces of two Santa Clauses in Miss Connor's room the pupils have made modernistic whiskers of frilled paper. Unusual effects are achieved in this room also through the unique Christmas trees made of paper which appear on the windows. Above the red containers are pyramided paper circles of green, making most attractive evergreen trees.

In Mrs. Blitz's room the "Night Before Christmas" is portrayed on one wall through a series of pictures.

Many rooms are decorated by cut-outs of Yule-tide suggestions, special work on windows or black-boards, etc.

Students in all rooms have made gifts for their parents; and those in Mrs. Blitz's room have decorated white paper in red and green for holiday wrappings. Miss Fine's class enamelled jars, placed stars and other decorations on the same, then shellacked the whole, making useful vases for presents for their parents.

TRAVELOGUE AND MUSIC INTEREST EXCHANGEITES

H. S. CHORUS SINGS

A variety program followed the weekly dinner meeting of the Bristol Exchange Club, last evening, when Christmas numbers, by a chorus, group singing and a travelogue were presented.

The Bristol high school chorus of 60 voices, under direction of Charles Quigley, high school music director, presented in excellent fashion several Christmas selections, including "The Christmas Hallelujah," and the more popular Christmas carols. One special number was "Silent Night," played by a brass quartet composed of high school students.

The group of familiar carols, which the Exchangeites thoroughly enjoyed, and which group asked for encores, included among others "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Joy to the World." The solo part for one selection was taken by Joseph Galzerano.

The travelogue, presented by Miss Elma E. Haefner, included an account of a journey this fall by airplane to Detroit, Mich., thence by automobile to St. Louis, Mo., and from that city by boat to Sheffield, Alabama. The speaker told the club members of the old-time stern-paddle-wheel boats, built after the fashion of a house-boat on a raft, a few of which still ply the inland waters of the United States. The journey lead from St. Louis down the Mississippi to Cairo, where the boat entered the Ohio River and continued to Paducah, Ky. From that city the course

BELIEVE MEN WHO STOLE CARS, FLEEING A CRIME

One Machine Possibly Abandoned Here Yesterday; Found Today

GREEN'S CAR LOCATED

With the finding of a stolen car early this morning at Radcliffe and Market streets, police are of the opinion that the two men who yesterday stole two automobiles here, were fleeing from a crime committed elsewhere. It may have been that the men planned a hold-up here but became nervous and thought that they were being watched, abandoned the stolen car and separating, each stole another car to make a get-away.

The Buick sedan of Marty Green, stolen from the rear of his store property on Mill street, yesterday morning, was found at 4.45 yesterday afternoon on Mudtown Lane, about 3 miles from Bristol, a blanket, a reversible coat and 32 caliber pistol were taken from the car. Evidently the thief had stopped and refilled the gasoline tank. Mr. Green told police that the tank was only about one-quarter full when he last had the car. When it was returned the tank was nearly full.

The Green car was found by Walter Bowker, of Bristol Township. One of the compartments in the car had been pried open and the revolver taken.

The other car, that of Mrs. Anna E. Bauroth, Radcliffe street, which was taken from Cedar street as Mr. Bauroth left the car for just a minute, had not been located up to a late hour this morning. The car was a Chrysler sedan.

Immediately upon receiving a report of the theft of the two cars yesterday morning, the Bristol police sent out teletype and radio messages giving the license numbers and descriptions of the two cars.

Police investigation shows that the stolen car found at Radcliffe and Market streets, early this morning, had been left there yesterday morning and that one man was seen to leave the car in more or less of a hurry.

Young Students Sing 63 Numbers in Twelve Hours

To sing 63 selections in the course of 12 hours would be a trial for almost any throat, but when 60 students in the Bristol high school chorus completed their 63rd number last evening they were in just as fine voice, and as full of "pep" as when they started on their carol singing in the morning.

The chorus, under leadership of Charles Quigley, music director of the high school, paid visits to the Harriman Hospital, the Wagner Hospital, St. Mark's and St. Ann's parochial schools, and grade schools of the borough. At each building a total of seven carols were sung, making 56 in all during the day. When they appeared before the Bristol Exchange Club last evening they were again generous with selections, and presented another total of seven. In addition they readily joined in group singing with the Exchangeites, during the early part of the evening program.

Early this morning the youthful singers were on their way again, this time forming a procession through the corridors of Bristol high school, singing the familiar selections. A Christmas assembly in the auditorium followed.

The President's Plans

Washington, Dec. 19.

THE President's plan for lending England arms and ammunition instead of insisting on cash for them when she no longer has the cash is an indirect method of extending the financial assistance which has been asked. It circumvents the two laws which stand in the way of direct and wholehearted aid to the British and is exceedingly ingenious.

THOUGH the plan clearly is a subterfuge, it is genuinely helpful in several ways. First, it averts any danger of stoppage of the flow of material from here to England when the British are no longer able to pay; second, it raises our

DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED AT EMPLOYMENT

Milton W. Ellis, Victim of Peculiar Accident at Superior Zinc Plant

WORKING FOR BUILDER

A man well known here and who for years was active in labor circles died in a hospital early today of injuries received yesterday while engaged in construction work at a local industry.

The deceased, Milton W. Ellis, 59, 527 Locust street, died in the Wagner hospital, at two o'clock this morning. He was admitted to the hospital yesterday afternoon at 1.30, after being injured while working at the Superior Zinc Corporation plant, here, on construction work. He was employed by Anthony Cesarini, contractor.

Ellis, along with other workmen employed by Cesarini, was raising asbestos sheets to the roof of a building. A "jim" pole extended out over the edge of the roof with Ellis and John Di Renzo, Penn street, standing on the ground pulling the sheets up to the men on the roof.

The "jim" pole snapped in two and fell to the ground and one of the pieces bounced back striking Ellis on the head. He was rendered unconscious and his skull was fractured. Ellis was taken to the Wagner hospital in the ambulance of the Bucks County Rescue Squad and Dr. J. S. Rodman, a brain specialist from Philadelphia, was called to operate.

Mr. Ellis was very well known throughout this area in organized labor movements. He had been for the past 35 years financial secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. He was born in

Tests Prove That Perfect Reception is Obtainable Over A Wide Area

THE FIRST CALL IS MADE

Patrol Car Called This Morning and Stolen Car is Located at Radcliffe and Market Sts.

Bristol police went on the air late yesterday afternoon when the installation of the two-way police radio system was completed.

The final details of the installation of the 50 watt system was completed late yesterday afternoon and after numerous tests had been made, the system was put into operation.

Early this morning the first emergency call was sent out over the radio when Patrolman Nichols called for the police car. Officer Nichols was at Otter and Mill streets at about 2 o'clock, and he called headquarters over the telephone call system.

Officer Pollard was on desk duty at police headquarters and he at once broadcast a message to the police car which was cruising around the borough. An immediate answer was received from the officers in the car, who gave their location as Bath and Buckley streets. The car was dispatched to Mill and Otter streets and reached that location almost as soon as Officer Nichols had completed his call and closed the door of the police call box.

The police car then went to the vicinity of the Bristol Theatre, where a stolen car was found. The machine, which was a Cadillac, according to latest reports, had been stolen from Philadelphia.

Upon completion of the installation of the radio system yesterday afternoon, the police car covered a wide area, not only in Bristol but the surrounding vicinity as well. Perfect reception was reported in both the car and the police headquarters, from

A TIME FOR INGENUITY

Merely as a symbol—apart from any consideration of its possible merits or demerits—the United States Army's new midget truck strengthens confidence in American military leadership.

Both in design and in the purposes for which it is intended it is new and different. It shows bold imagination, lack of which often is the besetting vice of military men and the underlying cause of military defeat.

Lack of imagination defeated the French, who so far ignored the lessons of the last war that they prepared for this one by building an even bigger and fancier trench system, the Maginot line. The German military mind was more inventive. It evolved the blitzkrieg tactics that rendered the French fortifications as impressively useless as the Pyramids.

American military thinking is being jarred out of the rut of conventionalism. The midget tank is evidence of this. This peewee vehicle, with the power to climb a 76 per cent grade, the versatility to transport troops, supplies or artillery and the compactness to be stowed in the belly of an airplane is an admirable innovation.

Regardless of whether it proves practical, the nation stands reassured that at least the American military mind is not drowning at the post of duty.

MAKE IT SNAPPY

It's a little late to do the Christmas mailing early—but at least there is still time to reduce the last-minute rush by posting those extra parcels and cards before another twenty-four hours have run their course.

In spite of the fact that extra men have been added to the post office staff, the last few days before Christmas become a nightmare not only to the workers but to those who must wait in line for service. One way to stagger the post office procession is for housewives to select an off-time period for mailing, leaving the noon hour and after-work periods to those who have jobs.

Even as it is, the postal workers will be busy until the last minute, and special delivery mail will be delivered even on Christmas Day. If those who man the postal service are to enjoy a holiday dinner with their families, everyone will have to make the most of the next few days.

Not that the bulk of mail going through the post office isn't welcome. It's a sign of reviving prosperity and of thousands of personal relationships maintained through thick and thin. The world outside the boundaries of the U. S. may be turning cartwheels, but here there is room for the little amenities which make life worth living.

Congress is going to move because of a bad roof. Perhaps the old ceiling isn't high enough.

Cost of the defense program will total thirty-five billion dollars or more, it is predicted. Such predictions have a tendency to err on the conservative side.

As a possible sign that Americans are going back to the custom of getting their music the hard way, it is announced that piano sales are the highest since 1927.

The country will have a larger cash income in 1941, declare the experts—without divulging what part of the anticipated income has already been spent.

Pine-Berry Cocktail has a Tangy Flavor That Adds Lustre to Holiday Menus

By BETTY BARCLAY

A supply of canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice in your refrigerator during the holidays will insure pleasant drinking for your family as well as friends who drop in to see your Christmas tree.

Because of its affinity for other fruit juices, pineapple juice makes a splendid basis for fruit drinks and punches that will be attractive for service during the holiday season.

Before your Christmas dinner or other holiday dinners serve pineapple cocktail. It's a tangy blend of canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice, bottled cranberry cocktail, orange and lemon juices, subtly flavored with spice.

To simplify dinner service, pass pine-berry cocktail from a tray in the living room. Crisp salted potato sticks from a can on the emergency shelf make good nibbling with the cocktails.

Pine-Berry Cocktail

1 cup canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 cup bottled cranberry juice
1/2 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
4 whole cloves
1 stick of cinnamon

Combine fruit juices. Add cloves and cinnamon. Cover and chill in the refrigerator for one hour before serving. Strain and serve in cocktail glasses.

Yield: 6 servings.

RITZ THEATRE

Nothing is too good for the victor. That would be Errol Flynn.

As Geoffrey Thorpe, captain of the British caravel "Albatross," Flynn had whipped the tar out of his Spanish enemy on Warner Bros. Stage 21 where Michael Curtiz was directing "The Sea Hawk," the new film showing at the Ritz Theatre.

The next thing to do was for the gallant victor to give a banquet for his men and the defeated Spanish officers aboard his ship; and what a banquet!

To inspire the actors to gala proportions, Jack L. Warner commissioned chefs to deck the boards with a feast.

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

Don't think there aren't plenty of grand last minute gifts to be had in a big department store. Manufacturers keep pouring fascinating gifts into Snellenburg's, for example, as fast as customers order them out. Let a shopping expert help you select yours.

Bunny slippers that actually squeal, and are they selling! Sturdily made, lined with lamb's wool, attractively trimmed with rayon plush, gleaming eyes.

Come in sizes 7 to 12 for infants and toddlers. Exactly 79c. Worth more. For older youngsters, taking sizes 8 to 12 (boys or girls) there are neatly smart "Faust" slippers that snap warmly about the ankles. Natural chamois color, brown bound. Warm bedroom slippers save many a doctor bill. Snellenburg's 1st fl. shoe dept.

Christmas door chimes—what more appropriate gift for the season? It will remind the receiver of you all year long. See and hear the chimes mounted on the display boards of Clearstone Rittenhouse chimes in Snellenburg's 3rd fl. Household Dept. The price of $1 is a new low for such excellent tone as found in the one chime "Trojan" used for doors, signals, maids, etc. Prettily finished. Inexpensive. A $3.95 Clearstone 2 door "Challenger" chime costs $2.95. Different attractive finishes. Chimes to $50.

Roller skates for Christmas! And the right kind! Snellenburg's skate buyer certainly knows his stuff. A star number for both boys and girls is the "Flying Scout", yet costs but $1.79. Same modified for smaller children. Although satisfying indeed is the $1.25 "Juvenile". It is low, strong, and light, and mounted on rubber shock absorbers. The "Zephyr", at $2.95, is said to be a "Gone with the Wind" type for sheer, joyous speed. Larger girls and boys go goofy over it. Toy dept., 4th fl.

A fruit cake like mother makes or—treason!—better. Three luscious pounds, in a round enameled tin gift box to keep afterward. The cake is rich but not heavy. Can be served as is or made into a sort of plum pudding simply by steaming. Grand ingredients and richly decorated with pecans. Snellenburg's noted 1st fl. Food Dept. is being requested to send them throughout the United States, for home use and gifts. Considering the expensive contents, the price, $1, is incredible. Truly a tops and timely gift.

Raincoats and umbrellas are ever welcome gifts. Snellenburg's 1st fl. Umbrella Department has a really swell raincoat number for women at $1.95. It's a silk oilskin "Air-e-ator" ventilated coat, invisibly metal eyeleted in the correct places—especially across the back—to prevent perspiration. Small, medium, large. Various colors. Folded in neat, self-material envelope. A grand, strong Fluo-Film umbrella costs $2.25. Permits vision. Artistic clear plastic handles. Blue, white, green, clear, etc. Clear sometimes bound in colors.

Franklin Shirts, for men and youths, makes of Snellenburg's 1st fl. Men's Dept. a veritable magnet for gifting wives and mothers. And no wonder! The Franklin Shirt, exclusive with this shop for years, has an outstanding reputation for tailoring. It's Sanforized, has cotton pearl buttons, is so cut that it's guaranteed even for wear, comes in 6 popular collar styles and a wide assortment of fast color, exceptional materials—and—haven't I told you?—costs but $1.39. Now will you buy?

Red ribboned baskets of writing paper in quaint brown splint baskets, with covers and handles, are about the most popular gifts at Snellenburg's 1st fl.

Stationery counter. The just right price of $1 adds to the popularity. These baskets will make fine sewing containers or luncheonette carriers afterwards. The same assistance lickety split, take your stationery department has hand-some conservative desk sets of pen and stand (for men and women), in marble and onyx, at exactly $5. An unsurpassed buy for any fastidious person.

Cheerio, now! Chin up, shoulder in, smile ready, and you'll come out of any shopping crowd with left-over charm and vim! Merry Christmas! "F. C."

led due South on the Tennessee River, traversing the states of Kentucky and Tennessee to the final destination in northern Alabama. Miss Haefer showed colored slides which included pictures of the boat reminiscent of the days of Mark Twain, and which in despite 100 passengers and crew, and some cargo drew but 4½ feet of water.

The activity on the three rivers was mentioned, with barges in tow of boats; sunducks and dredges removing the sand bars which form so quickly. The raising of the boat to higher levels by means of locks at three dams was told of. Following a short motor trip through Northern Mississippi and Alabama where cotton and peanuts were being harvested, and juice extracted from sugar cane and boiled into sorghum syrup, the return journey lead through the Great Smokey Mountains.

Percy C. Ford lead the group singing, with Exchangeites and high school chorus joining forces. Dr. George T. Fox exhibited to the girls and boys, and the club members, a piece of wood from the frigate "Constitution," the story of which was briefly told on a metal plaque attached thereto.

Roy Fry was the presiding officer during the dinner, at which turkey was the piece de resistance.

Police Radio Here Installed And Is Now In Operation

Edgely, Croydon, and other points adjacent thereto.

The antenna of the radio is located on the top of the water tower at Pond and Mulberry streets, and then is carried over to the police headquarters in the Municipal Building.

Last night's tests proved that Bristol can send messages as far as Doylestown, Bristol, however, could not receive messages sent out from the county seat over the police radio there. This is said to be due to the fact that the Doylestown police radio is a 25-watt set, while the one here is 50-watt. The police believe that the radio will be a great aid in preventing crime here. If a complaint is received at headquarters and if the services of an officer are required, word is at once flashed to the police patrol car which proceeds immediately to the scene.

Heretofore it has been necessary to ring the various police bells throughout the town, hoping that an officer would be in the vicinity and answer the call. As the boxes are located quite a distance apart, it often takes several minutes to contact an officer.

8 GRADES PARTICIPATE IN HULMEVILLE PROGRAM

Some Grades Present Numbers Thursday, Balance Given Today

TREAT FROM THE P. T. A.

HULMEVILLE, Dec. 20.—All pupils of the eight grades in the Hulmeville-Middletown public school participated in Yule programs yesterday and today.

Yesterday afternoon parents were invited to witness the numbers given by grades one to five inclusive. An operetta "What Happened to Santa" was the presentation of grades two and three; songs were sung by first grade pupils; and fourth and fifth grades staged a play "Topsy Turvy Toy Shop."

Today "Bringing Santa Up-to-Date" was the title of the sixth grade presentation; "Santa's Visit," by the seventh grade; and a play staged by grade eight was written by Betty Jane Wunsch.

Candy and oranges, the gifts of Parent-Teacher Association, were distributed today. Sessions closed this afternoon for the holidays school reopening on January 2nd.

A lighted tree appears on the school house lawn, the lights being provided annually by the P. T. A. members.

HULMEVILLE

Great Britain Attacks The Axis Powers

London, Dec. 20.—Great Britain took the offensive against her Axis enemies today with violent attacks by air and sea upon the most vital ports and bases of Italy and Germany.

Encountering no opposition, the British Navy steamed into the Adriatic at Italy's "back door" and poured 199 tons of shells into Valona, one of the only two Albanian seaports remaining in Italian hands.

At the same time, the Royal Air Force lashed out at the industrial areas which form the backbone of Nazi Germany's war machine, scoring crippling victories at Dusseldorf, Cologne, Duisberg and Essen.

In the latter city are the gigantic Krupp armament works which turn out the major portion of Germany's military weapons.

The attack on Valona, which coincided with another naval assault against Bardia, was announced in a communiqué which disclosed that Britain's fleet apparently now is able to operate in the Adriatic and Mediterranean without serious opposition from Italy.

Light and heavy units of the Mediterranean Fleet, consisting of cruisers and destroyers, swept the Adriatic as far north as Bari and Durazzo in the raid which presumably reduced the harbor facilities of Valona to a shambles.

Not a single Italian ship was encountered during the entire foray, the Admiralty said, and so far as could be ascertained even the Italian Air Force made no effort to forestall the attack.

Germany Loans Planes To Italy

London, Dec. 20.—Germany undoubtedly has loaned Italy planes to rush troops to Albania to halt the Hellenic advance, but reports that 50 to 90 thousand Nazi troops have arrived in Italy probably are "misleading propaganda," London authorities said today.

British press reports hinted at steady Nazi troop movements into Mussolini's domain, but informed British circles cautioned against believing such rumors.

Most of these stories have originated from Nazi propaganda bureaus in Belgrade for these purposes:

To disguise Germany's real intentions, which may be to send Nazi troops through Spain for an attack on Gibraltar.

Aid Mussolini by reports of German intervention in Albania, which would stiffen Italian morale at home.

Induce Britain to concentrate still greater force in Libya to the detriment of defense forces in the British Isles, where they are needed.

tremor was about 100 miles north of Boston. This would place it near Lake Ossipee, N. H.

"It was the worst earth tremor recorded in New England," said Dr. L. Don Leet, in charge of the Harvard Observatory.

Stained glass windows at St. Aloysius Church, in Nashua, N. H., were broken.

Scores of frightened residents in Worcester and Springfield, Mass., fled into the streets in a freezing rain in their night clothing.

Harvard Seismograph officials discounted any connection between the earth shock and the proximity to the earth of the Cunningham Comet, now close to its maximum nearness to the earth.

The shocks in New England appeared to be most severe along a northeast line across the Connecticut Valley, centering near Littleton, N. J.

In Worcester the first shock was felt at 2:25, in Providence, R. I., at 2:27 in Boston at 2:28 and at Bangor, Maine, at 2:29.

Fordham recorded it at 2:28:22 a. m. Residents of Manchester, N. H., reported that the 'quake was accompanied by a heavy rumble resembling the vibration of trucks rolling along a highway.

At Keene, N. H., the wall at the Central Police Station cracked slightly as the building shook.

Particular alarm was felt by residents of Southern New Jersey which has been the scene of a series of munitions explosions recently. Many plants in that area are working night and day on defense contracts.

The Philadelphia City Hall shook clear to the statue of William Penn at its top; and the Camden, N. J., police headquarters likewise swayed. All the communities along the fashionable "Main Line" section in suburban Philadelphia likewise were affected.

Coast Guard weather bureau employees atop the Customs House in Boston, one of New England's tallest buildings, reported the needle-shaped building swayed during the shock and rocked dizzily from side to side.

Linotype operators in newspaper plants, getting out the early editions of afternoon newspapers and the late editions of morning newspapers, were surprised as their machines began to sway.

Residents along New York's many miles of beaches on both shores of Long Island were rudely awakened by the shocks.

Canada likewise experienced the quake, the heaviest shocks being noticed at Montreal.

Throughout the length and breadth of the quake area, lights went on in houses on street after street. After frantic calls to newspaper offices, police stations and other places for reassurance, the frightened householders went back to bed.

RECIPES: Those Which Interest Women

Holiday Delicacies

Chicken, Maryland Style

2 chickens
Flour
Salt and pepper
Bread crumbs
1 cup milk or cream
½ cup butter or other mild fat
2 eggs

Clean and disjoint young chickens, leaving the breasts whole. Put the necks and giblets into cold water and simmer to obtain a cup of stock for the gravy. Sprinkle each piece of chicken with salt and pepper, dip in flour, beaten egg and soft crumbs and place in a greased pan. Bake in a hot oven (480 degrees F.) from 30 to 40 minutes, basting frequently with one-fourth cup of fat melted in one-fourth cup of hot water.

When the chicken is done, make a gravy from the fat left in the pan, stirring in two tablespoons of flour, one cup of milk or cream and the cup of stock made from the giblets. If you like, add a few button mushrooms. Serve the chicken with the gravy poured around it.

Reception Punch

8 cups sugar
2 quarts water
½ cup crushed mint leaves
3 quarts orange juice
1 quart pineapple, grape or berry juice
1 quart lemon juice
2 quarts iced tea
2 gallons water
2 quarts ginger ale
Orange and lemon slices and mint sprigs

Boil sugar with the 2 quarts water about 5 minutes. Add crushed mint. Cool and strain. Add fruit juices, tea and water. Just before serving add ginger ale. Pour over ice in punch bowls. Garnish with fruit slices and mint sprigs. Serves 100.

Lemon Hard Sauce

1/3 cup softened butter
2 3/4 cups powdered sugar
1 egg yolk
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Cream together well. Fold in thoroughly:

1 egg white, stiffly beaten.
This makes a delicious cake icing also. Serves 8-10.

Cocktail Sauce for Shellfish

1 tablespoon horseradish
½ cup tomato catsup
6 tablespoons lemon juice
Dash of tabasco sauce
Salt to taste

Blend well. Serve very cold. Serves four.

Turkey Curry

6 tablespoons fat
1/3 cup onion, finely chopped
1 large apple, peeled, diced
1 large apple, peeled, diced
1 large can mushrooms or
1 pound fresh mushrooms

3 cups turkey, diced
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 to 1 1/2 teaspoons curry powder
1 1/2 cups turkey stock and top milk, or cream

Cook onion, apple, mushrooms and turkey in the fat until onion and apple begin to be transparent: 10 to 15 minutes. If fresh mushrooms are used, saute several minutes before adding to other ingredients. Remove from heat, add salt, flour, and curry powder and stir thoroughly. Add liquid, and cook until thickened throughout. Set over hot water, cover and cook 15 minutes longer to blend the flavors. Taste and add more seasoning if desired. Serve with hot boiled rice. Little or no salt is added in cooking rice.

Tomato-Rose Salad

Firm tomatoes
Cream cheese
Milk
Hard-cooked egg
yolk
Watercress or lettuce
French dressing

Peel tomatoes and chill them. Slightly soften cream cheese with milk. Form two rows of petals on each tomato by pressing level teaspoons of the softened cheese against the side of the tomato, then drawing the teaspoon down with a curving motion. Sprinkle center of each tomato with hard-cooked egg yolk pressed through a strainer. Serve on crisp watercress or lettuce with French dressing.

Wafers and Cookies

Good old standbys—these wafers and cookies. Just the thing for the lunch box, after bridge, buffet lunch, the Ladies' Aid Society. But vary the contents of your cookie jar. Here are two recipes that will help you do this:

Brazil Nut Wafers

2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
¾ cup flour
1 1/2 cups sliced Brazil nuts
Cream butter, stir in sugar, add egg and water. Add flour mixed with nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a baking sheet, greased with unsalted fat or oil, at least two inches apart. Bake about seven minutes in a moderate oven, 325 degrees F., or until brown. Remove from oven, let stand half a minute and remove from baking sheet with a spatula. If last wafers get too hard to remove easily, return to the oven for a minute and then remove.

Brazil Nut Macaroon Cookies

2 egg whites
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup ground Brazil nuts
Beat egg whites until foamy but not

dry. Beat in sugar and salt gradually. Add ground nuts and drop by teaspoonfuls on an ungreased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., 15 to 20 minutes, until light brown. Remove from pans at once.

LEMON REFRIGERATOR CAKE

24 marshmallows, cut fine and soaked 30 minutes in
1 pint whipping cream
2 tablespoons gelatine, softened 5 minutes in ½ cup water
1 1/2 cups sugar, brought to a boil with
1 1/2 cups water
Add sugar syrup to gelatine mixture. Add:
½ cup lemon juice

Cool. When beginning to stiffen fold in marshmallows and cream which have been beaten stiff. Pour into an 8- or 9-inch springform, lined with 18 to 24 ladyfingers. Chill 6 to 8 hours. Serves 12.

SOME HELPFUL HINTS

Do you have trouble with head lettuce leaves breaking? Cut them around the core with a sharp knife and hold them under running water as you pull them off.

Ferns often worry us when on a short vacation. Place a large pan of water on the stand near the fern. Dip one end of a small towel in the pan of water and another in the fern dish. Then you do not require the services of a forgetful neighbor.

To remove finger marks on a highly polished piano or radio, wipe with a cloth wet in pure cold water, then dry with another cloth. This restores the new look at once.

THOSE IRON FOODS

It's a good idea to have lists of foods that are rich in the various minerals and salts. One never knows when some member of the family, neighbor or friend may need the advice such lists will enable you to give.

Lean beef is exceptionally rich in iron. If you do not care for beef, oysters and spinach are almost as good. Then, in the order named, we have molasses, eggs, graham bread,

Wrap up a THRILL in this Year's Holly Wreath!

Buick SPECIAL Sedan,
$1052. White sidewall
tires extra.*

SUPPOSE, come Christmas morning, you took your wife to the front door, pointed out through the holly wreath — and there let her see a brand-new Buick standing at the curb!

A thrill? You bet — for the whole family!

Out of the question? Not at all. Look:

We're not suggesting that you add the cost of a new Buick to your Christmas budget.

But you probably will be buying a new car soon and we are simply proposing that you buy it now, a few months ahead of time — and make this a holiday long to be remembered.

We're suggesting that there's no time like the present to get back of that big FIREBALL Eight — no time like right now to start piling up gasoline mileage economies that run as high as 10% or 15%.

There's no time like holiday time to dress up yourself (and family) in smart, fresh Buick aerodynamic styling, or to introduce your brood to the roomy comfort of this Buick-eradled traveler.

You can do that — if you act promptly.

A trial ride to give you a hint as to what

Buick can do — a little figuring on your present car's worth (at today's trade-in values, not next spring's) — a little working out of convenient terms — and you'll have a FIREBALL to celebrate this Christmas!

How about it? It's one thing your wife would never expect — and just about the finest gift any man could give his family!

DOUBLE DUTY DOLLARS

EVERY DOLLAR SPENT AT HOME PAYS DOUBLE DIVIDENDS

Every dollar spent at home helps to make our future secure. It not only buys for us merchandise comparable in quality and price to any other trading section, but it helps maintain our schools, our churches, and the costs of local government.

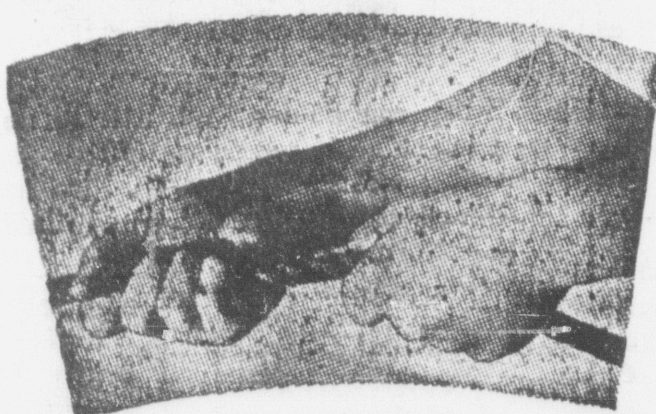

How does it accomplish this double purpose? Simply because of the fact that local merchants help support the schools, costs of local government and churches. A portion of every dollar spent with a local merchant is turned back to the Borough in the form of taxes. And local merchants help support the institutions of Bristol. Why let your dollars roam to other towns?

The challenge is up to you. You alone can help to make the future of Bristol secure. You alone can help to build Bristol. You alone can "build Bristol by buying in Bristol."

Buying at home increases local payrolls. We urge you to try Bristol first. Whether it be groceries, household items, clothing, or any other article, try Bristol first.

LET'S ALL PULL-L-L..... TOGETHER!

MANKIND IS OFTEN INJURED BY FREAK TYPE OF ACCIDENT

One Family: Boy Grabs Charged Wire; Sister Hit By Car; Dog By Girl

CAUTION IS URGED

Driver Jumps to Safety; Truck Knocks Houses From Foundations; Fire Follows

By Paul Jones
(National Safety Council)
CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 20.—A further study of unusual and novel accidents which can befall mankind, brings to light many an oddity.

Many a pedestrian has been struck by a hit and run driver. But to Mrs. Anna Martinelli of Johnston, R. I., goes the distinction of being the victim of a hit and run dog which itself was the victim of a hit and run driver. The driver hit the dog and fled. The dog hit Mrs. Martinelli and fled. Mrs. Martinelli did not flee. She had been knocked unconscious by the dog.

Police had one clue to identity of the hit-skip dog. They were reasonably sure its license number began with K-9.

In Chicago a dignified old gentleman was standing on a safety island, waiting for a street car and having no intention whatsoever of taking a taxi. But he did. For as a passing taxi swerved sharply to miss another car, the back door flew open. It scooped up the nice old gentleman and deposited him gently on the floor of the cab, all set for a ride.

As Ralph Lyman, of Clarinda, Ia., hurried to answer the phone he slipped and fell, but crawled painfully on to hear a voice say, "This is Doctor Burnett. Can you come right over and look at my furnace? It's broken."

"You'd better come right over and look at my leg first," replied Lyman. "It's broken, too."

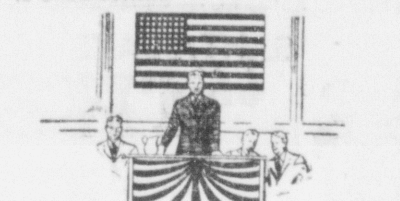

And it was!
In Farmington, Conn., two men were chatting on a bench. One got up suddenly. The bench tipped over, dumped the other man on the ground and then bopped him on the shoulder, breaking the collar bone. The victim of the improvised teeter-totter was Frank Hotchkiss. He and his friend have now arranged a series of getting-up signals.

When James Wetzel of Milwaukee fell into a sand hopper and was buried up to his nose, he remembered the story of the Three Little Pigs and the Big Bad Wolf. So he huffed and he puffed until he had formed a hollow in the sand around his face. Then he kept on huffing and puffing until fellow

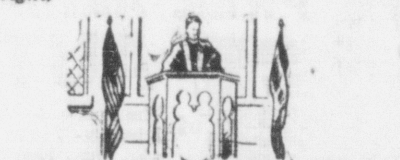

Today's Lesson in Flag Etiquette

● Bunting should be used for platforms or for the decoration of speakers' stands and for general decorations. The blue stripe should always be placed uppermost and the red at the bottom.

● On patriotic occasions, the flag may be displayed above and behind the speaker against a wall or curtain. If flown from a staff, it should be placed at the speaker's right.

● In church, the flag should be placed at the congregation's right. Other flags should be placed to the left of the congregation. In the chancel, or on a platform, the flag should be placed at the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation, and the other flags at his left.

● When one halyard is used for two or more flags, the American flag should always be flown at the peak. In displaying flags on adjacent staffs the American flag should be hoisted first and lowered last.

● When the American flag is displayed with another flag with staffs crossed, the American flag should be on the right, with the staff over the staff of the other flag.

workers found him, a little out of breath, but unhurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mann, of Indianapolis, weren't expecting anyone to drop in on them that day last winter. But 22 students of Indiana University did—in a bus! Mr. Mann was that surprised he thought it was an earthquake shaking the house. But Mrs. Mann wasn't so sure, and when she investigated she found a big bus poking its nose through the basement wall. The bus was taking the students back to school from a vacation and the driver had swerved to miss an auto.

Oscar Smith, of South Bend, Ind., used to scoff at the superstition that it was bad luck when a black cat got in front of you. Now he knows better—especially when the black cat is in a black bag.

Oscar was driving along and the black cat was in the black bag on the seat beside him. All at once there was a swish and a swoosh and cat, bag and all landed kerplunk on the steering wheel.

This surprised Oscar very much and before he could convince the wildly clawing cat that one driver at a time was enough, his car had collided with a milk truck. When the commotion died down, the cat and the bag had disappeared. Oscar didn't bother to hunt for them.

Mrs. Olen Deatherage, of Springfield, Ill., knew that some women drivers can make an automobile do some mighty funny things. But she never dreamed she could run over herself, until she did it. Her car spun around after a collision, throwing her out the right hand door. Her body hit the gear lever and shoved the gear from low to reverse. As she fell from the car it backed up over her.

Yes, in these days anything can happen—and does!

FASHION PARADE

By Orry-Kelly
(Famous Hollywood Stylist Writing For International News Service)
HOLLYWOOD—(INS)—Because the Hollywood stars, during idle hours on the sets, have remained true to their first love, knitting, there are many fascinating fashions being constantly turned out. Added fuel to enthusiasm are the interesting and intricate new yarns to be bought.

And it's no myth, for your information, that the girls knit to calm their nerves as well as pass the time while waiting to go into a scene. Bette Davis is never without her needle work, and since being introduced to the pleasures of crocheting for scenes in "The Letter" Bette is now doing a good deal of this work. Little things for her home generally.

Fur yarns are the newest novelty. These combine shades to resemble the markings of fur and are amazingly like the real thing. Black and white for skunk, gray with white for silver fox, white with brown for ermine, and so on. Bette has just completed a boxy jacket in a gray wool yarn that resembles Persian Lamb. In fact, it is so like the fur that the star has been wearing it as an evening jacket with a gray chiffon gown. Added dress is achieved in twin diamond and ruby clips on the collar.

During the eight weeks of filming of "The Wagons Roll At Night," Sylvia Sydney has knitted a one-piece frock in black with brief turtle neck. She pins a sparkling gadget on the bodice and it makes a very good looking casual dress worn with or without a coat.

Anita Louise has searched out a very subtle Scottish tweed yarn combining maroon and gray with a bit of heather blue for a street length swagger. A matching knit turban is still in the making. Because Anita wanted a bright blue wool lining to be more than just a lining she knitted the coat with very large needles in an open stitch. Velvety yarns are also popular for new scarf and hat sets with the needle-pliers.

Joan Blondell, for color contrast, has one in a rich plum shade worn with matching flannel skirt and a white slip-on sweater with elbow length sleeves.

HOUSES which are designed for an absolute minimum construction cost rarely offer that item of extra expense—a porch.

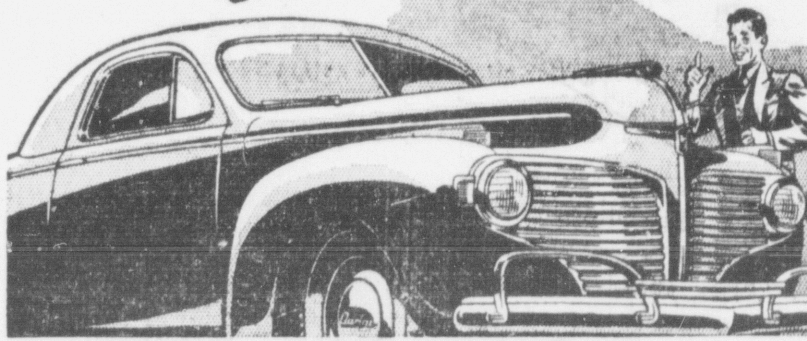

This minimum home offers what might be called an enlarged "stoop"—big enough to provide outdoor living in summer and protection for both the main exit and a kitchen door at other seasons. The fact that the entry door is on the side helps to create the illusion of greater length. When built with a basement the designer suggests a reduction in the size of the porch and the kitchen.

The newest in smart ELASTI-GLASS Belts & Braces

The Latest Ribbed Design

A thrilling innovation—science's miracle material, Elasti-Glass—in a striking new "ribbed" design that slides more easily and does not stick to itself—Elasti-Glass holds firmly without binding, yields to body pressure but never loses its elasticity, never dries out and in clear transparent, matches every suit or shirt perfectly. Also available in your choice of sparkling colors.

Ask for "Stars and Stripes" belt with beautiful American Flag buckle in natural colors—"McKinley" belt with hammered buckle—"Hayes" braces with gold-plated clips.
